Foreword

As the time for graduation draws near, we, the Seniors of 1964, think back over our school days. We now know that these have been some of the best days of our lives. As we go forth into the world to make a place of our own, we realize that we will rely upon the teachings and help of our parents and teachers.

We will never forget the wonderful hours we have spent here at Grantham. Our purpose in this, the 1964 GRANNAWAYNE, is to picture some of the scenes that become an important part of the life at Grantham High.

The

Grantham High School, Goldsboro, North Carolina

For your help and consideration, we honor you,

Miss Ruth Gardner

Interested, impartial, sympathetic, capable—these are among the qualities of MISS RUTH GARNER, our guidance counselor. We first knew her as a teacher and as a friend. For the past two years we have been privileged to go to her with all our problems and needs, finding her ever willing to help us strive to develop the best that is within us. Her sincerity and perception inspire self-confidence and determination in those who seek her advice. We, the seniors, feel very fortunate in having her with us, and are most happy to dedicate to her the 1964 GRANNAWAYNE.

Thank you, Miss Gardner.

*For their willingness to serve,
we remember these:*

Paul Leon Hare

On September 18, we met a friendly, energetic, happy little boy who came, of his own choosing, to try out for mascot. Leon, cheerful and alert, seemed to think of us as his friends. His infectious smile won the vote of our class. How deeply moved we were when we heard the news of his drowning on October 24! Many of us, along with his family, will always cherish the memory of this gay little life who, we feel, was chosen by God.

"God moves in a Mysterious way,
His wonders to perform;
He plants his footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm."

"Light Shinning Out of Darkness"
By William Cowper

Mr. Zeb Watson

Mr. Watson, who directed our band for several years, was a very kind and generous man. He was a friend to all who knew him. He wanted everyone to be happy and he created this atmosphere at each practice session. In remembrance of Mr. Watson, we the Senior Class of 1963-64, would like to express our personal gratitude to a man who contributed much of his time to help Grantham begin a band.

For your Interest and Understanding we recognize you,

Mr. Sam L. Thomas

He strived to improve our science department and enabled Grantham to further its students' knowledge of the modern sciences. He was a good friend to all and was interested in each of us. He was fair to everyone and appreciated the efforts of his students. Even though he is teaching in another school now, each of us will always remember his kindness and willingness to help. In this, our yearbook, we, the seniors are happy to say, thank you, Mr. Thomas, for being a good all-round teacher.

There was

"Man shall not live by bread..."

A man to man talk!

"Let's win that game!"

a time to be serious

"Explain it just one more time!"

"Oh boy, let's go to chemistry class!"

Our modern method of teaching

... and a time

"Get that rebound!"

"Fight! Team!"

"Who said so?"

for fun!

Fight!"

"Let's puff awhile boys!"

"Let's eat, drink, and be merry!"

*Jimmy,
May your future
be filled with happiness and success. Dad
Bless you. Always

Library Club

Our library club has inspired many students to look into the new life and adventure books we have to offer and has influenced others to explore the limitless resources in our library. Each member has gained valuable knowledge and experience that will be a valuable asset in his future.

The Deltas

This youngest club in school was organized by Mrs. Doris Jones and Mrs. Blonnie Warren to encourage the more studious members of the freshmen and sophomore classes. An average of 85 or above is required for membership. Training in parliamentary procedure and in the various facets of school activities will, it is believed, enrich the lives of the members, improve the tone of the school, and provide more skilled leaders for the upper classes.

Class Prophecy

As the days of graduation draw near, we Seniors are thinking of our many past experiences. But everyone knows that one cannot live in the past. Therefore we begin to look into the future and wonder what may be ahead. Ten years from now we imagine...

PEGGY ALTMAN will be operating her own telephone answering service in Wilmington.

ANN BEST and PAULETTE COX will be saying that the tourist business is increasing each day at the Blue Bell Motel in Mount Olive.

R.A. BEST has just patented his latest invention, a car that spins around in the middle of the road.

LINDA BRITT is celebrating her fifth anniversary as an instructor of judo.

CLEMENT BURCH and RALPH GRADY are running a used car lot at Grantham, bought from "Honest George."

MACK DENNING is coaching the Yankees during their ninth straight series with Grantham.

We find MARGARET DENNING hot-footin' it down the street to her secretarial school where she is teaching a course in modern shorthand.

BRENDA DUNBAR is working on her latest novel HOW TO HOT-ROD A SCHOOL BUS.

EDNA EDWARDS is teaching at her alma mater, King's Business College.

FRANCES EDWARDS is happy as an engineer's wife. Her husband builds bridges for her teeth.

LAMONT FUTRELL has gone sky-high in his profession. He is window washer on the Empire State Building.

LAMURIEL GRADY and LINDA KORNEGAY are running the College Drive-In. In fact they are running all Mount Olive.

MONTY GRADY and IREDELLE STEVENS are holding the "Silent Spot" on the Red Skelton Show.

ELAINE GODWIN has won world fame as the hair stylist for horror movies in Hollywood.

JENNIFER HILL is now manufacturing "Hartley Giggie Boxes."

This is CARLTON HINSON'S tenth year as "No. 1 Bench Warmer" for the Duke "Blue Devils".

This is TRUDY HOOD'S tenth year of sitting behind the "No. 1 Bench Warmer" at ballgames.

GERALD HOLIAMON was elected "best looking janitor at Hardee's" the other day.

VICY JACKSON was just awarded the title "Miss Universe of '74". She competed with Miss Moon, Miss Venus, Miss Mars, and many others.

JOHN DAVIDSON, M.D., sends his patients to DWIGHT JERNIGAN, pharmacist, who sends them back to John.

JUDY JERNIGAN should certainly be commended for her part in sending up our latest moonbound rocket.

GRACE JONES has a new gang, but they're still as light-hearted as ever. They're called "The Three Stooges".

JERRY KORNEGAY'S new hit comedy, "Louie Goes Phooey" had a tragic effect on the audience.

Training "Ceil's Famous Seals" is PAM LONGO'S latest hobby. Pam finds time for this after her long day's work of answering "Dear Abbey" letters.

Bang! There went the top of the high school building again. RAYMOND McKINZEY is the new chemistry teacher. The last time that happened was the night we graduated.

JOAN PENNINGTON was tremendous last night in her starring role as a singer on "The Nurses".

ALICE POTTER has fulfilled her lifetime ambition; she is now happily married.

JERRY RADFORD is making a great success doctoring hogs.

MARY SMITH is working her way up to the top at Sears Roebuck & Co.

ELIZABETH STEVENS now helps her husband toss hay.

VIRGINIA THOMPSON has become a first rate Avon Representative.

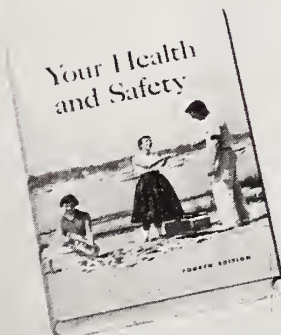

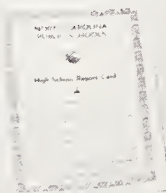

That can't be JANICE WESTBROOK we see riding that kangaroo in Barnum Brothers' Circus. But it is!

ERNESTINE BEST has just left on a treasure hunt in Egypt.

NANCY INGRAM is the new personnel manager at Weil's.

A ringing bell brings us back to the present and we see it is time for our next class. As this year comes to a close, we find the time slipping by so fast that soon these experiences, so vivid in our minds today, will be only fond memories tomorrow.

No Boys' Allowed, a three act comedy, was presented by the Junior Class on Friday, October 11. Donna Grady played the role of the girl who was having a slumber party for her friends while her parents were away. Her guests were Annette Raynor, Janice Cox, Patricia Jackson, Ruby Brock, and Janet Woodall. Sarah Keen was the Negro maid who was frightened out of her wits by a prowler, Edward Aswell. Billy Goff, Donna's ex-boyfriend, Leon Darden, Norwood Head, and Harry Jernigan tried to crash the party; so the girls called on Janice Best, Billy's mother, to come to the rescue. In all the excitement Dwight Jackson, a policeman, came in to arrest the prowler.

FRESHMAN INITIATION

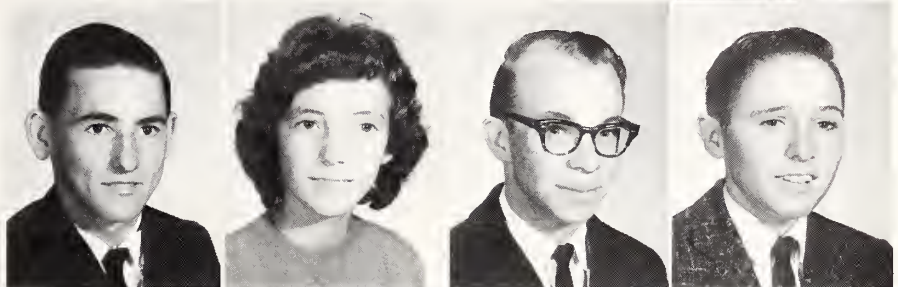

Freshman Initiation was a real ordeal. Grantham didn't have initiation last year so the freshmen got some bad treatment. They had to parade down the hall in every thing from mule harnesses to little red wagons. Joyce Bivens won first place for her outfit; Patricia Womble, second; Elaine Perkins and Sherry Hill tied for third. The boys didn't have a contest, but they were hilarious. Initiation is perhaps the most humorous memory of the freshmen.

Jimmy,

Well, this is our Junior year, just think one more to go. I sorta dread it. It doesn't seem like its been eleven years but it sure has.

I've really enjoyed going to school with you all these years. We sure have had some good times at different places, especially at church.

We'll keep that friendly smile and neat disposition, and I know you'll go along with in life.

Lots of luck to a swell guy.

In Memoriam John Fitzgerald Kennedy

No senior will forget his feelings as the news of this man's tragic death was flashed across the nation. History is made every day, but an event which causes facts of the past to become so alive cannot be fathomed by the imagination until they are a reality. Courage, strength, ambition, purpose, and love for his country were outstanding traits of this, our leader, who fell to the assassin's bullet on November 22, 1963.

May we, as citizens who wish our nation to go forward, remember his words from the inaugural address.
"Ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country."

The deep red roses drenched in Blood lie on the floor.
The youthful, handsome face
Will smile no more.

The hearts of our country unite and Shriek forth a sorrowful cry as
The flag draped caisson tugged by four
Gray horses to Arlington clatter by.

To heaven to rest in our Lord's arm
I feel his soul took flight.
But we need him on earth to lead
Peace, the direction he thought right.

I know in my heart that I should Question our Heavenly Father not!
But my grief-stricken heart
Does not understand His plot.

Many dreams are smashed, like helpless ships,
Dashed against a rocky shore.
My neighbor, build your dreams on the foundation
Of his incomplete hopes.

Make sure the block fit, and that they stand strong and tall.
Make sure your temple does not cause
The hope, faith, and love of other men
To crumble and fall.

Only long after the traces of the red fluids of life are gone,
And the petals of the red roses are scattered by the winds,
Will people stop—look about them, and then walk on,
Realizing what is lost.

John F. Davidson
